FALSE DECLARATIONS FOR CUSTOMS PURPOSES

At the Mansion House Justice Room yesterday Alderman Sir Harry Twyford imposed fines totalling £900, with 50 guineas costs, on Roman Michalovitch Lovigin, 66, an engineer, living at The Avenue, Bedford Park, W. He pleaded "Guilty" to six summonses alleging false declarations for Customs purposes, and a further six summonses which charged him with being knowingly concerned in

Mr. B. M. Stephenson, for the prosecution, said that the defendant was formerly a Russian subject, and under the Royalist Government was a State Councillor, with the title of "Excellency." He founded the Russian Registry of Shipping and had represented Russia in missions to this country. The cases arose out of a business which his two married daughters conducted from Paris. They manufactured scarves, and the defendant made false declarations as to the prices at which they were sold in this country. and had also declared that he had bought the goods outright, whereas in fact he had not purchased them at all, and never at any time had any intention of so doing. The duty lost to BEGAN HONESTLY

Mr. Alban Gordon, defending, said that he had advised his client to plead guilty as in law he had no defence. He had started quite honestly, taking just a few scarves to help his London, E.C.4. Solicitors for the said Addaughters, and he was then declaring the right prices. Later, when an agent was appointed to represent the daughters, the sales grew out of all proportion, and the defendant, instead of forming the Customs authorities as to the Gentleman who died on the 22nd day of January 1939 | Position, continued to declare the prices on He was a distinguished engineer, and was engaged on important work, the nature of which Mr. Gordon said he did not wish to SIR HARRY TWYFORD said that the defendant was an educated man and knew exactly what was doing. It was made worse because he came to this country, presumably to take having regard only to the debts claims and demands refuge, and he had abused the kindness of the try. The least he could do was to fine him £75 on each summons—£900 in all. with 50 guineas costs. In default, he would go to prison for three months. In reply to Mr. Gordon, the ALDERMAN said that in view of the scriousness of the case he | could not allow time to pay.

scene at a meeting in Hyde Park on Wednesday night was described at Marlborough Street Police Court yesterday when WILLIAM FRANCIS CURTIN, aged 25, labourer pleaded "Not Guilty" to a charge of using words calculated to cause a breach of the peace while delivering a public address. He was Police-constable Morrison said that at 10.25 p.m. he was at a meeting of the "Friends of the Irish Republic." Curtin was chairman. There was a crowd of about 500 people, and immediately in front of the platform were about 50 Irish people. The crowd was very hostile to the speakers and continually interrupted, and a piece of poetry was greete with boos and catcalls. Curtin shouted: Soon we will be deported and when we get to Ireland we will —— well have the English of it." The witness heard several mer " Murderers." Curtin unfurled an Irish flag, waved it and said, "This flag stands for freedom: the Union Jack stands for bloody murder, starvation, and atrocities." He also shouted, "Soon we will be going back and , and I call on you Irish to give three The crowd became very hostile and he larrested Curtin. About 30 or 40 Irishmen persons entitled thereto, having regard only to the made a rush but Curtin assisted the police

Curtin gave evidence and said that he was member of the Clann Na Gael. He said he was an Irishman and sympathized with the Irish people. He said the Union Jack was a blood and murder flag. He did not use the

It was stated that Curtin deserted from the Royal Artillery in 1935. He served two months' hard labour for inflicting cruelty on two-year-old child in 1938. He served as licutenant in Spain for eight months and returned to Ireland after being wounded. Or April 24 he was fined 2s. 6d. at Marlborough Street for fighting in Hyde Park.

On Sunday week, about half-past 9 in the morning, a body of Chartists, estimated at about 1,500, formed in procession and made their way to Stockport church, who immediately, on the doors being opened, rushed in took complete possession of the church When the respectable families arrived, who had seats in the body of the church, saw them thus occupied, they were of course at a loss to account for so unexpected an ingress. Many ladies returned home—alarmed no doubt —but the gentlemen in general stayed to witness so unusual a scene. There was no
